Emergencies Involving Drugs or Alcohol

Medical amnesty and calling for help

Call for help

If you or someone else needs medical attention from using alcohol or drugs, contact University Police, Residential Life, or 911 immediately. Stay with them until help arrives.

Amnesty Policy

Grand River University does not condone underage drinking or the use of illegal drugs. The University encourages students to reach out to University and other professional staff for help, regardless of whether they, or their friend, have been using alcohol or other drugs.

Student Amnesty in the Sexual Misconduct Policy

Grand River considers the reporting and adjudication of Sexual Harassment and Sexual Misconduct to be of paramount importance. Grand River does not condone underage drinking or the use of illegal drugs; however, Grand River will extend amnesty to students who are claimants, respondents, witnesses, and others involved in a grievance process from punitive sanctioning for illegal use of drugs and/or alcohol when evidence of such use is discovered or submitted in the course of a grievance process. Similarly, Grand River may, in its discretion, provide amnesty for other conduct code violations that are discovered in the course of a grievance process. Notwithstanding the provision of amnesty for students as described in this paragraph, Grand River reserves the right to refer claimants, respondents, witnesses, and others involved in a grievance process for (impact of alcohol on the body/brain, BAC levels, safe use), University policies, and state laws.

Recovery Support

River Recovery Community (RRC): A collegiate Community (RRC) is a supportive environment within the campus culture that reinforces the decision to disengage from addictive behavior. It is designed to provide an educational opportunity alongside recovery support to ensure that students do not have to sacrifice one for the other.

Recovery Awareness Programming: The Office of Wellbeing provides multiple programs that occur throughout the semester through passive and active programming to remind students about their bystander skills and empower them.

Targeted Group Education

Targeted education includes specific messaging with social norms tailored education programs, and ongoing communication with program directors to ensure students are receiving appropriate support to understand the effects of Alcohol or other drugs (AOD) use.

Examples of programming for each identified group are below:

- First year: Impact of AOD on body and warning signs for AOD overdose, bystander intervention.
- Fraternity/Sorority: Event host training, impact of AOD on body and warning signs for AOD overdose, bystander intervention.

Education and Referral Services

For Employees

Employees may request counseling or rehabilitation for substance abuse through the Employee Assistance Program (EAP). Services are confidential and are available at no cost.

Contact the EAP at 123-456-7899 for information about available services.

For Students

Students can reach out to the River Recovery Community described above.

Contact the Wellbeing Center at 123-456-7899 or at aod@grs.edu.

For Emergencies

In an emergency contact University Police or local law enforcement by dialing 911.

Other Referral Services

Approved alcohol and drug information/treatment referral services are also available at the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism's Support and Treatment page.

Crime Prevention Presentations

As part of the University's community-oriented policing philosophy, we offer crime prevention presentations each semester to Residence Halls by officers assigned as liaison to Residence Halls and student groups, as requested. Topics of these presentations include personal safety awareness, fire safety, and property protection strategies. Anyone interested in having a GRS Police Officer speak to their classroom or Residence Hall should contact University Police. These programs are available to any individuals affiliated with the University upon request.

Specific educational programs are also provided by the University Police to address domestic violence, stalking, drug abuse, and sexual assault.

Campus Security Authorities

Campus Security Authorities receive training annually via in person or online training.

Customized Programs

Customized programs on most security-related topics are prepared for campus groups and organizations upon request.

Support to Other Offices

University Police works closely with and supports the work of the Title IX Office, and peer education office.
